Blame, the year has really been a good one. I wish I could have gotten to know you better. Young life was fun, when it you want always there. During the 4th + 5th comp. was an experience (chicken). You a really great guy. Good luck & love a fun summer.

David, I can't believe I can't come to graduate from Billy that you're in one of my very best friends. I'm glad to go on for you to leave. I'm really going to miss you but, yet fast times for ya, good looks, friends, etc. I hope you would have been in touch in the summer.

Dave, it was hard to find a place to sign this considering how popular you are and your personality. You really are sweet. Dave and I've better enjoyed this year. Our lunch table 4th hour was fun. I promise never to forget food at you live in. Now remember - you live in. Now 9. Please come and visit me over the summer. Best wishes. Love always, Karen

A DRAMA PRODUCTION

Cast: Carol and Ann

Written and Produced by: Carol

The setting: A bright, cheery language room, where 2 young frivolous girls chance to meet.

Carol: Hark! I hear someone coming.

Ann: (As she enters the room)
Well Carol, hello. Please sign my yearbook.

Carol: (As I accept the (her) book)
Of course I will sign your book!

(At this point the music intensifies, as I, pen in hand, madly work my way through lines and lines of glorious remembrances and well wishes for a successful future.)

Carol: Here you are Ann. I believe I am finished. (As I hand the book back to her.)

Ann: (Gracefully accepting the book)
Thank you ever so much Carol.

(It is at this time, my dear friend Ann, with the soft wind gently blowing her hair, and a glow of radiance upon her angelic face, departs from my midst.)

Carol: (As I call after her) Goodbye for now Ann, and remember "Parting is such sweet sorrow."

As the glowing sun goes down, I slowly walk off into the sunset.

THE END

Dear Jonathan,
These four precious years during which our ignominious selves have been subjected to the rigors of academics, lead me to the conclusion that life is all too short to be concerned with the trivia mouthed in these hallowed halls. Remember NaHCO_3 and $\frac{y^2-x^3}{z}$. With these thoughts held high before you, success is but a moment away.
Best wishes from your friend -

Fremd Students Begin The 1977 School Year With A Traditional Celebration

In keeping with a well-established Fremd tradition the 1977 school year began with the annual Back to School get together. Dancing to the music of the rock group, SYNOD, were many of Fremd's finest. The dress was informal and the fun was contagious.

This event is annually sponsored by Fremd's Student Council. The purpose is in keeping with the spirit and enthusiasm which has always been a part of Fremd's fine tradition.

Kurt Heintz and Kelly Stockdale enjoy the music.

The Bump wins as the all around favorite for the night.

Fremd students gather to celebrate

"I can't believe he stamped my hand! Doesn't he trust me?"

the opening of the school year.

Band members show real emotion during the evening.

Frosh Mixer Becomes An Afternoon Delight

Sponsored by the Freshman Class, the Frosh Mixer gave the newest additions to Fremd an opportunity to get to know one another. For the first year, the Mixer was held on a Friday afternoon with the music being provided by ROCKANDY. The Class of 1980 got right into the spirit of things and its career at Fremd was launched in fine style.

"Well, at least we'll have co-ed gym."

Fremd Blood Drive Is Combined Annual Effort

The Fremd Blood Drive represents a combined effort of the Faculty and the Senior Class. Under the direction of the Red Cross, all blood donated is used to offset the needs of the local community. This annual joint effort is representative of the kind of spirit that thrives at Fremd High School.

"I'm smiling 'cause they'll never get me on that table."

Standing by to assist is senior volunteer, Karen Martz.

Fremd Vikings Journey Over The Rainbow For 1976 Homecoming

The week of Homecoming 1976 turned Fremd High School into a fantasyland of excitement and color. The combination of the imaginative theme of "Over the Rainbow" with the beautiful fall weather and the victorious Viking football teams made the week-end unforgettable.

Senior Ellen Marsik was chosen by her classmates to reign as Homecoming Queen. Crowned on Tuesday of Homecoming Week by 1975 Queen, Barb Snick, Ellen and her lovely court graced the annual Homecoming parade and the football game. Also honored during the week were the senior girls selected as members of Rose Arbor.

Climaxing this eventful week was the dance, the success of which was testified to by the overflow crowd. Homecoming 1976 was an exciting and colorful highlight of the Fall at Fremd High School.

Fantasy Comes Alive For Fremd's 1976 Parade

With the cooperation of the local weatherman, October 1st provided a colorful setting for the pageantry of the annual Homecoming parade. Seniors took top honors, with the second place award going to the Junior Class float.

Queen Ellen Marsik and her court, Senior Cindy Ward, Junior Katy McGrath, Sophomore Cindy Dennis and Freshman Tracy Martin, proudly led off the parade and were followed by the float entries and cars of many Fremd students.

Three Rose Arbor members participate in the parade.

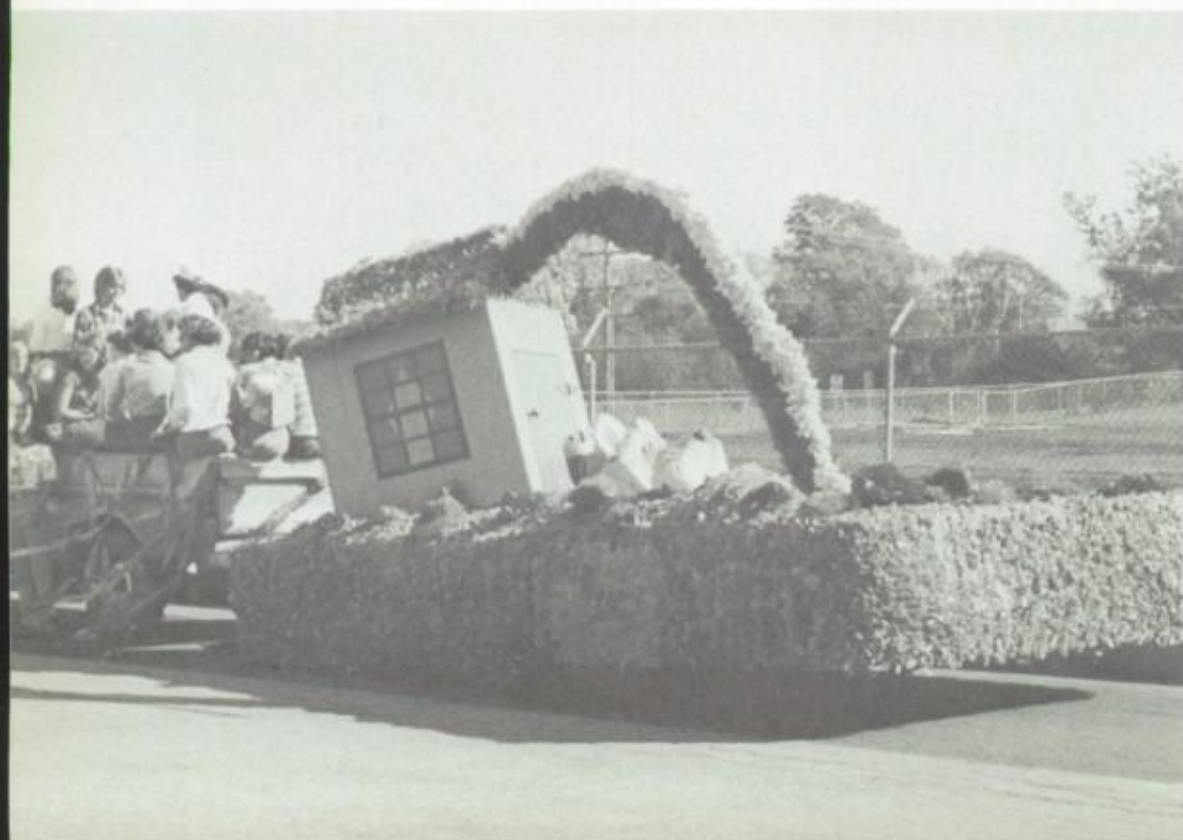

The joint effort of the Music Clubs was rewarded with a third place prize.

The Queen And The Royal Court Reign Over The Land Of Oz At The Homecoming Dance

The pot of gold at the end of the Fremd Rainbow was the long anticipated Homecoming Dance. The crowd agreed that the music provided by CATCH was the best heard at Fremd in a long time. Alumni returned to join in the festivities marking the end of Fremd's 1976 Homecoming Week.

Seniors Sandy Omerod and Tom Phillippe enjoy the dance.

Alumnus Guy Henning and Barb Berry make an appearance.

"Of Thee I Sing" Kicks Off The 1976-77 Season For Viking Theater

The second season for Viking Theater came on like gangbusters with their timely political spoof, "Of Thee I Sing." Portraying the humorous side of a presidential campaign was Brad Apland running on a platform of LOVE. Starring with Brad were Vicki Stafford and Lynda Hillesheim and a group of talented Vikings.

Produced and directed by Mrs. Duer and Mr. Smith, the Viking Theater proved again that the talented students at Fremd can provide blockbuster entertainment.

All eyes are on Peggy Hamill.

Vickie Beiriger applauds the platform.

Lynda Hillesheim orders "Groucho" off the stage.

Parents Have Opportunity To See School Life Like

Fremd opened its doors in October to give parents an opportunity to see school life as their children do. With schedules in hand, parents followed an average day in a student's life. Along with classroom procedure, parents and visitors were treated to drama and music demonstrations and other highlights of Fremd in action.

The computer was a source of interest to parents.

A World Of Laughter And Tears Creates Theme For A Successful 1976 Variety Extravaganza

With the concentrated effort of Fremd talent and the able direction of Mr. Chiddister, Mr. Klassy and Miss Peterson, the 1976 Variety Show was presented with its expected success. Using the theme of "It's a World of Laughter; A World of Tears," many students were given the opportunity to make use of their singing, acting and dancing abilities. The show packed the house for three nights and received great reviews from everyone.

Jenny Jones mugs for the camera in "Fremd High Girls."

Sharon Trocke puts a little "hip" into it.

Heide Perez vocalizes "Send in the Clowns."

Candles and punch added to the festive mood at the Winter Formal.

Queen Kristin Heintz And King Jeff Curtin Reign Over Winter Formal; Stillman, Apland In Court

The highlight of the 1976 Winter Formal was the crowning of the first Snow Queen and King. Kristin Heintz and Jeff Curtin were voted by classmates to receive this honor, while Cindy Stillman and Brad Apland reigned as Snow Princess and Prince. The music for this special night was provided by SYNOD, a favorite at Fremd.

Orchestras, Choirs Combine To Present Joyous Holiday Concerts

'Twas the season to be jolly and Fremd High School did all that it could to contribute to the general good will. Under the direction of Mr. Chiddister, Mr. Klassy and Mr. Peterson, Fremd choirs and orchestras combined to present Holiday Concerts which brought good tidings of great joy to all in attendance.

Girls Get Their Chance to Date That Special Guy At 1977 Turnabout

The annual Turnabout Dance gives the girls at Fremd the opportunity to make a date with their favorite fellow. It is a favorite among the guys since their wallets are given a break and the ladies foot the bills for the night.

Jim Hamil was chosen Turnabout King while Craig Rawlins was Senior Prince.

Fremd Hosts 1977 IHSA District Speech Meet; Takes Third Overall

Fremd had the honor of hosting the 1977 IHSA District Speech Competition. Added to this opportunity was the fact that the Fremd Speech team came in with a third place overall. Coached by Mr. Sampson, individual winners included Jill Goldstein, first in prose, Mark McIntosh and Vicki Stafford with seconds in radio and original oratory, and Kurt Williams, third in extemp.

Dancing, Volleyball, Basketball — All Contribute To Successful Rec Nights At Fremd High

Rec nights are an important part of student life at Fremd High School. Sponsored by the Student Council, these nights give the students at Fremd an opportunity to mix and mingle with friends or meet those new people who appear from time to time.

Whether dancing in the cafeteria or playing basketball in the gym, these social get-togethers make the year an eventful one.

Turn The Beat Around Is A Show-Stopping Smash!!

1977 Orchesis created a smashing success with their annual dance presentation titled "Turn the Beat Around." Under the direction of Mrs. Emmer and Jean Evans, Orchesis members and other dancers sparkled under the spotlights and earned the applause of the audience. Over one hundred Fremd girls participated in this excellent show. The skill and talent of all contributed to maintaining the high standards of all Orchesis presentations.

Orchesis member Jan Montjoy solos to "Riders to the Stars."

The Paulick Sisters make 'em laugh!

Cindy Ward, Terri Oswald and Jan Haliday strike a dramatic pose for the number, "West Side Story."

Jan Haliday portrays a Sugar Plum Fairy.

Junior Kathy Dirkes is caught in a graceful moment.

Wendy Scanlon invites the audience to "Turn the Beat Around."

Karen Bucaro, Nancy Nesvig, Nancy Wickum and Tracey Moore portray the fight scene from "West Side Story."

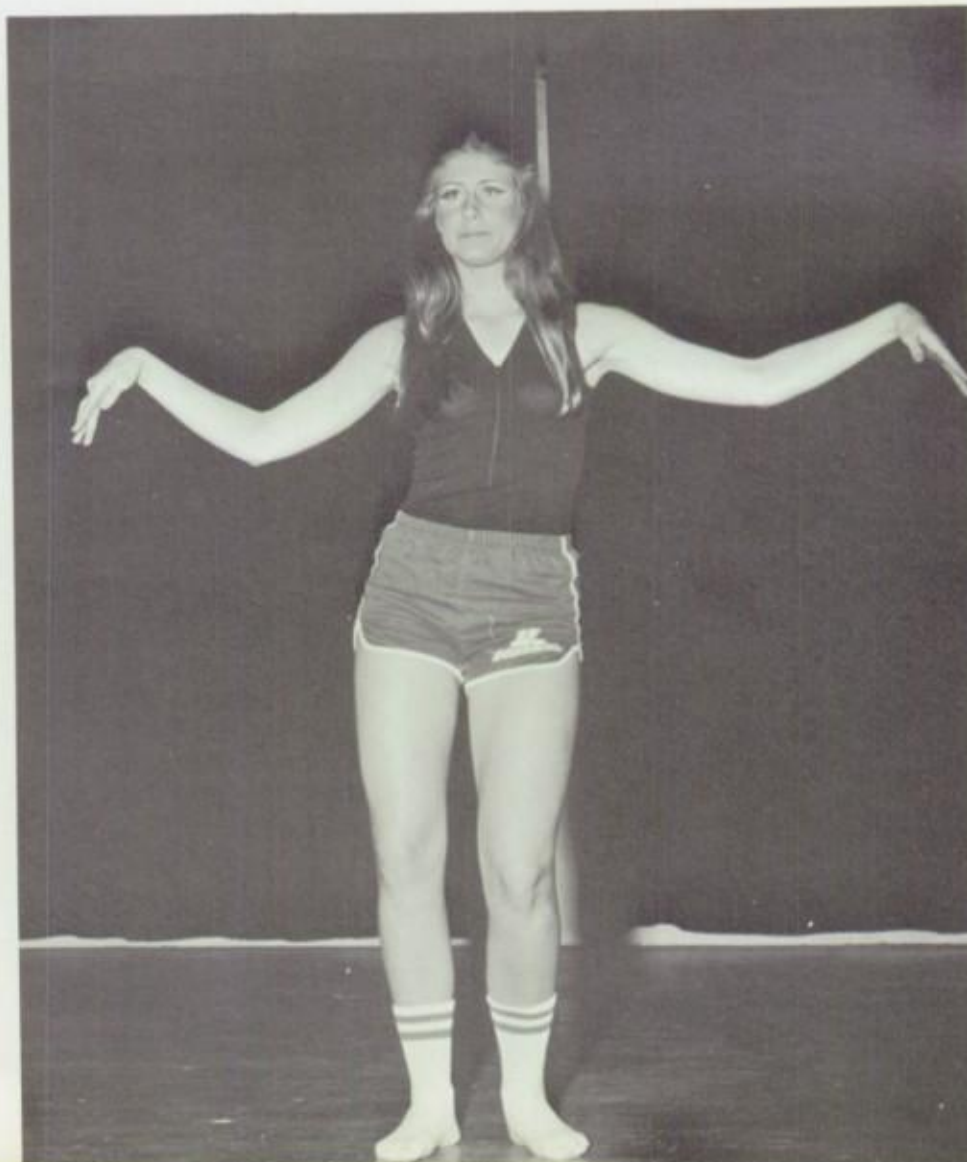

Senior Surfers brightened up the performance.

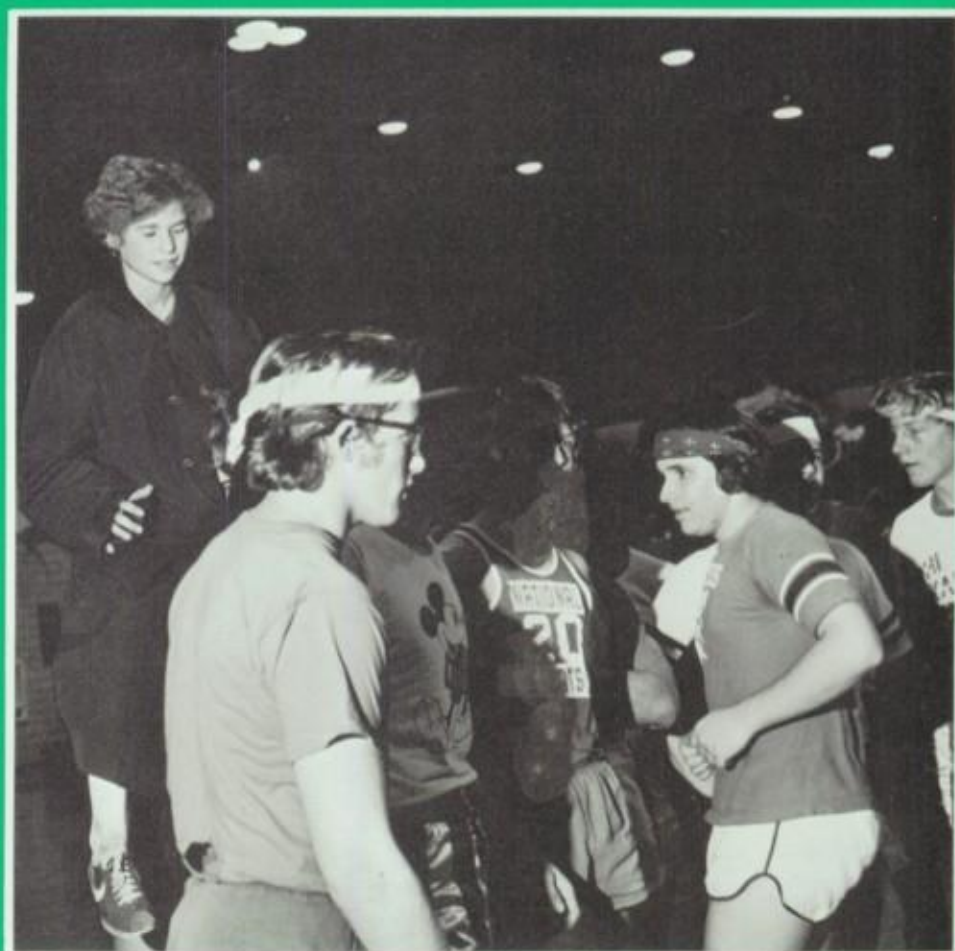

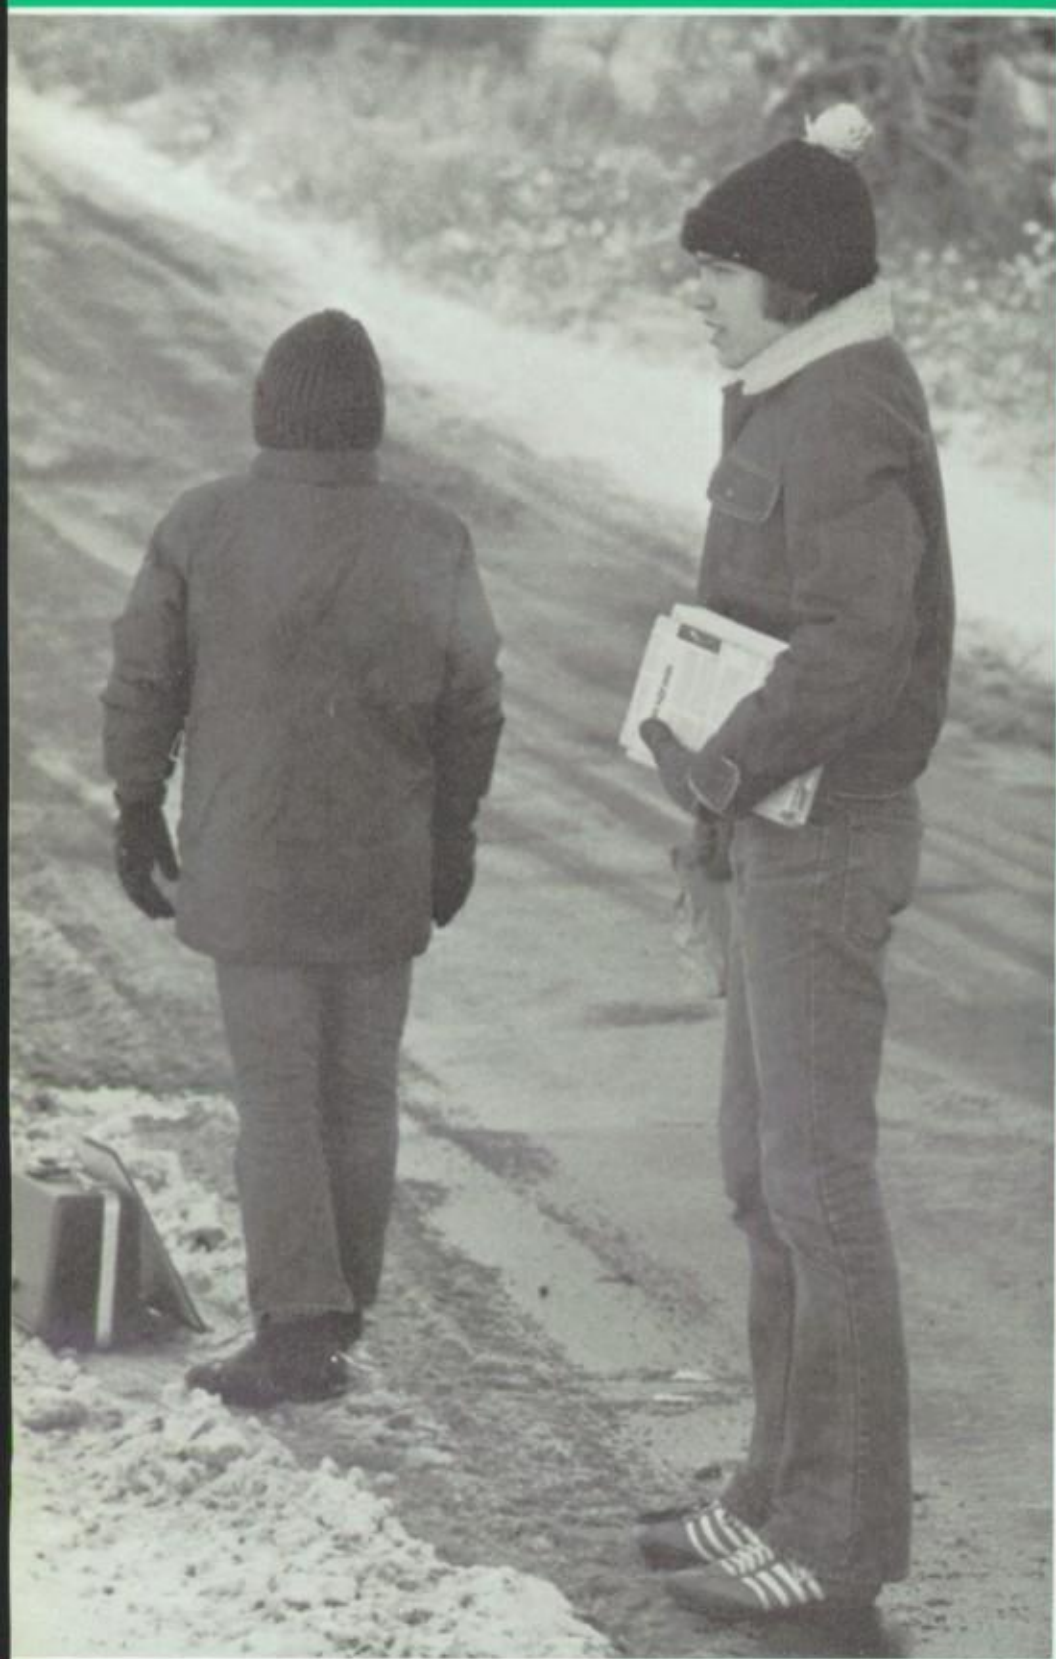

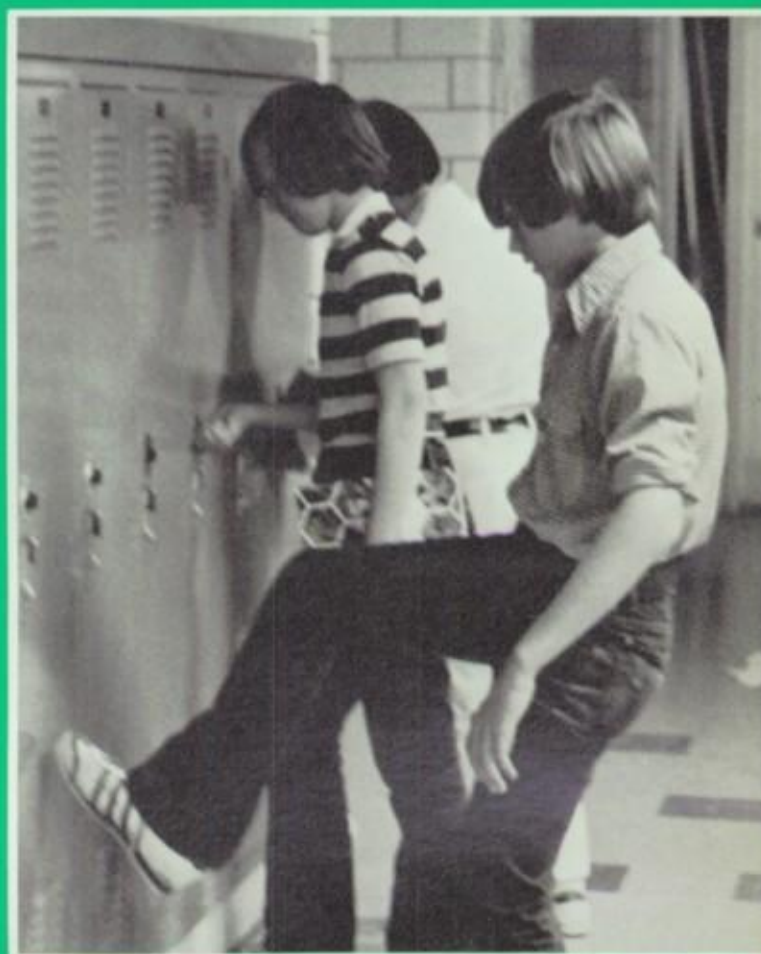

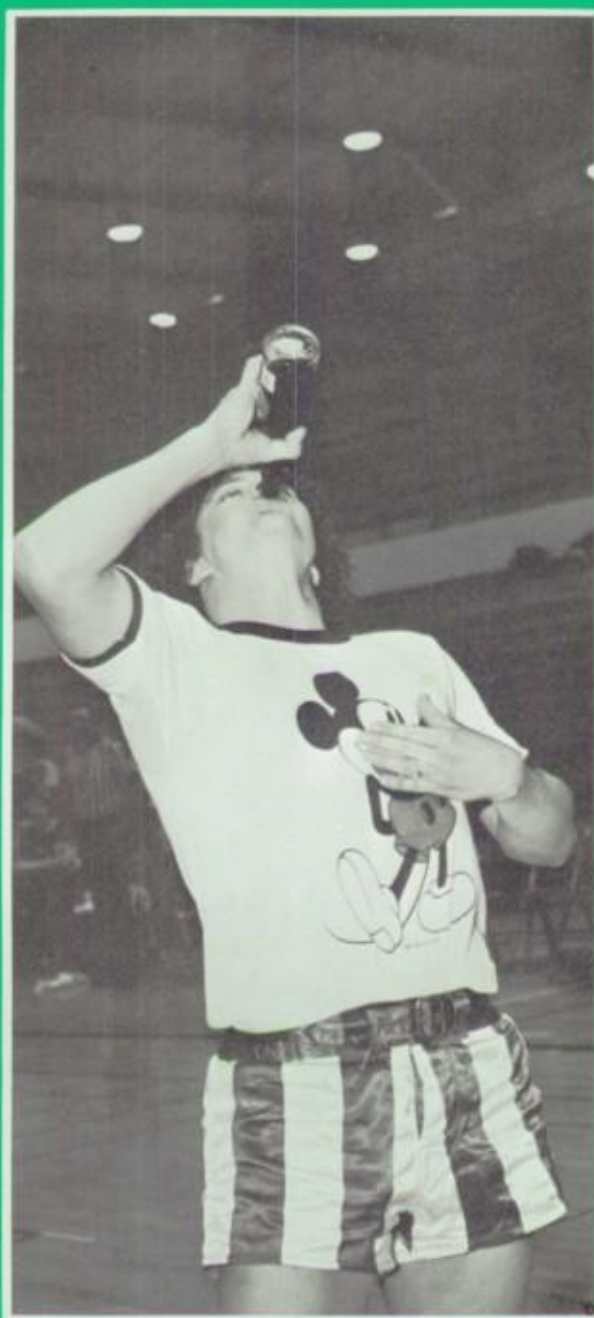

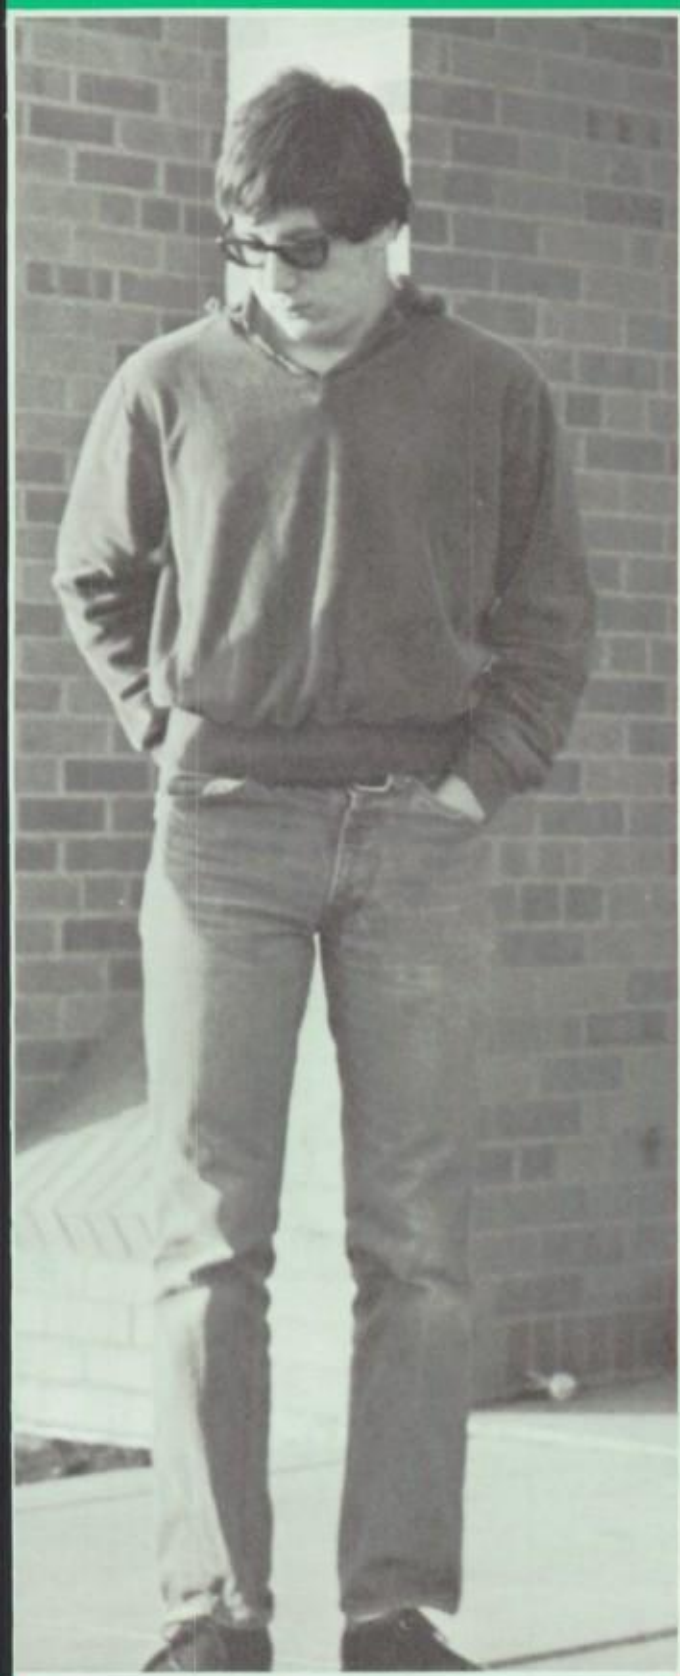

Debbie Albrecht dances to Nadia's Theme.

Dawn Rogner opens with a showstopping solo.

So how are things with you? It seems strange that I'm writing in your yearbook for the last time. We'll have to keep in touch next year. I'll get awful tired of talking conceited to myself. I'll miss ya! I wonder why we get along so well. Maybe it's because we're two of a kind, "cute, talented, egotistical, well-liked & conceited!!" We've come a long way this 4 years, I'm kind of sad to see it end but we're on to bigger & better things. Thanks for all those jaunts to 7-11. They really made the season bearable. Good luck with all you do next year, whatever it is you're going to do. Take care, be good, and if you're ever looking for a good time, call me. I'll take you to the airport!! Sounds fun!!

Keepin touch + keep running. Don't give up, you've got it in you.
Love always

Fremd Varsity Vikes Score Big With 6-3 Season; Sophs End Year With 8-1 Record; Frosh Squads Post .500 Overall

There is only one word to describe the 1976 football season at Fremd and that word is GREAT! With a well-balanced team, potent both offensively and defensively, the Vikings were strong contenders for the North division crown. The talent on this team was recognized thruout the conference as area coaches selected Greg Lombard, Rick Ramsey, Dale Hallberg, Tim Bullen, Gary Gunderson and John Finney to the All-Conference team. It proved a victorious year for Coach Samojedny and his varsity Vikes.

Coach Vern Boelkens' Sophomore squad posted a fine record with only one loss to crosstown rival, Palatine, while the Frosh squads had a respectable .500 season.

Dedication Is Key Word For Viking Swimmers

In its first year as a conference team, the girl's swim team demonstrated much dedication and skill. Practice was held six days a week and very early in the morning. However, these demands did not stop the Vikings from making a good showing in the Mid-Suburban conference, known for its strong teams.

Melissa Waters was chosen as captain of the team and also ranked as the top swimmer. Fremd was represented in diving competition by Dana Warren. Other girls noted for their skill and competitive spirit were Kathy Kern, Donna Wessberg and Kim Wegener. The girls were coached by Miss LeMay.

Archery Team Scores A Bullseye For The 1976 Season With Team And Individual Performances

Fremd's Archery Team did very well in the 1976 season and topped off their fine performance by taking a 4th in District competition. Laura Weber ranked 3rd in Districts and advanced to State competition where she took 10th place honors.

Betsy Hill, Debbie Wise and Janet Ray were among team members who turned in fine overall performances. Archery is coached by Mrs. Meyer.

First Year Of League Competition Sees Vike Netmen Kick Up Storm In Conference

In its freshman year of League competition, the Viking Varsity Soccer team took top league honors. Led by captains Paul Cornwall and Steve Norys, the Netmen advanced in the highly competitive North division conference and were defeated only after two rounds of District matches.

An exciting highlight of the season came in the District match against Barrington. It took a combined total of four overtimes, but the Vikings came out on top in true Fremd tradition.

Conference Title Taken By Varsity Harriers

Although a sixth place in the state Cross Country finals disappointed the Fremd competitors, the overall record for the team was impressive. The Vikings swept the conference meet and were undefeated in all dual meets for the season. This super record keeps pace with the high standard which has been a part of the Fremd Harrier tradition.

Girls Cross Country Runs Hard With Competition

Girl's Cross Country, coached by Miss Trees was undergoing a rebuilding year in 1976. Led by top runner, Sharon Ratcliffe, the proud Viking ladies relinquished their conference trophy but not the tradition which made them tough competitors for all comers. Steady running and a real team spirit made the year a rewarding one for all concerned.

Fremd Cagers Finish Strong In Tough '77 Conference Schedule

Under Coach Mo Tharp, the Fremd Varsity Cager squad played highly competitive basketball and saw a season which started out slow but came on with a strong finish. Dominated by senior starters with some able assistance from talented juniors, the Vikings held their own in the midst of many aggressive teams in the North Division.

A Fantastic Third In State Tournament Caps A Thrilling Season For 1977 Girls B-Ball Team

The winning tradition established for the Fremd Girls Basketball team continued in the 1977 season. The highlight of the season was winning third place in the first Girls Basketball State Tournament ever to be played in Illinois. Led by the dynamic trio of Cannon, Bruns and Danz, the Vikings won a harrowing first round game against Hinsdale South only to fall to the eventual champs of the tournament, Sterling. However, coming back with renewed determination, the Vikings beat Centralia to claim their third place trophy.

The entire season was a source of excitement for Viking fans and the excellence of the team is testimony to the sportsmanship of the girls and the fine coaching of Miss Plodzien.

Viking Matmen Are Strong Contenders On All Levels In 1976-77 Season

Posting a .500 season overall, a very young Viking varsity Wrestling squad can look forward to a fine program in the future. Dominated by Juniors and Sophomores, the Matmen saw a 7-6 record in dual meets. A highlight of the 1976-77 season was the hosting of the Conference meet at Fremd. Varsity coach, Mr. Henrikson spent many hours planning this major event, and was ably assisted by his coaching staff.

Outstanding on the 1976-77 team were Jeff Penn and Steve Miller who both took a first in Districts and advanced to the Sectionals.

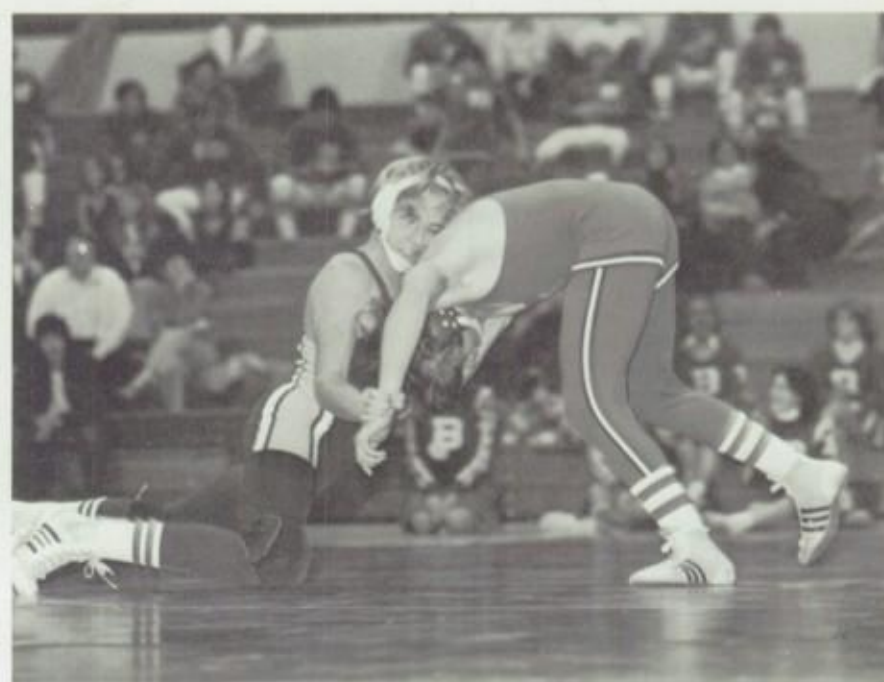

Coaching the Junior Varsity I to a 7-5-1 record was Mr. Barker. JV II is coached by Mr. Fiocca, while Mr. Danisch coaches the Frosh.

Girls Take Third In 1977 Mid-Suburban Battle; Moore Is State Ranked

Tracy Moore show excellent form on the balance beam.

Competing in a strong Mid-Suburban league, the Viking Girl's Gymnastics team walked off with third place conference honors. This fine showing testifies to the growing skill and confidence of this team. In the true Viking spirit, these ladies, coached by Miss Trees, worked very hard to develop their all-around skills.

Junior Tracy Moore captured a first place on the uneven parallel bars during the conference meet. This fine performance was only outdone by her capture of second place in All Around in the state meet.

An important part of school life goes on in the music wing of Fremd High. The music groups which are directed by Mr. Chiddister include Madrigals, Concert Choir, Advanced Girls Chorus and Girls Chorus. Throughout the year these talented groups perform not only at the high school but for a number of community functions. At a year-end dinner, awards are given to those students whose contributions have aided the growing skill and appreciation of the department.

Bands Give Talented Fremd Musicmakers A Chance To Swing

One of the largest and most important activities at Fremd High School is the instrumental music program which sees much participation by students. Mr. Robert Klassy and Mr. Richard Peterson take responsibility for this all-important part of student life. During the school day and on into late afternoon, music can be heard by anyone walking by the music wing.

Instrumental groups at Fremd include Marching Band, Jazz Band, Pep Band, Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble. This broad range gives many students the opportunity to participate at many different levels and styles. Annually, the District Orchestra is selected from among the talented musicmakers districtwide, and Fremd claims more than its share of participants.

Homecoming Dance is one of many Student Council events.

Student Council Is A Center Of Activity For Fremd High School

Student Council is perhaps the most active group at Fremd High School. Membership includes class representatives who report to the general student body, and representatives from each of the school-sponsored activities. With this broad representation, the Council can keep up with the likes and dislikes of the Fremd student body.

Activities included in the busy Council schedule are Homecoming, annual Blood Drive, Ice Cream Social, Rec Nights, Turnabout and many more. Student Council is sponsored by Mr. Peekel with assistance from Mr. Cates and Mr. Smiley.

The all-school Blood Drive was a successful venture.

Council officers include Brad Aplan, President, John Brown, Recording Secretary and Dale Hallberg, Vice-President.

Mary Gross serves as Corresponding Secretary.

SUPER SENIORS

David, I got to think I better know you so glad this year. I'm such a super person! (Really)
 I hope you go to Utah next year - it would be neat. We could have alot of fun. Besides it would be nice to see someone there I know. I hope I see you alot this summer at parties + stuff. I'll have to show you my powers pretty soon or I might lose them. Maybe I'll make you some more food soon. If you don't go Utah I wish you the best of luck - Take care!
 Love,
 Cathlynn

1977 Valhallan Staff Is Best Ever!!

Nobody but a yearbook staff realizes the tremendous job in putting out a yearbook which characterizes their school. The 1977 VALHALLAN staff devoted uncountable hours to creating the best yearbook yet to be seen at Fremd High School. Editor-in-Chief, Melinda Simeon, worked with an excellent staff consisting of Kathy Pfaff, Sharon Klaczek, Amy Oswald, Deeana Copeland, Dan Vrabec, Kevin O'Malley, Jeanne O'Malley and many others who contributed to the overall effort.

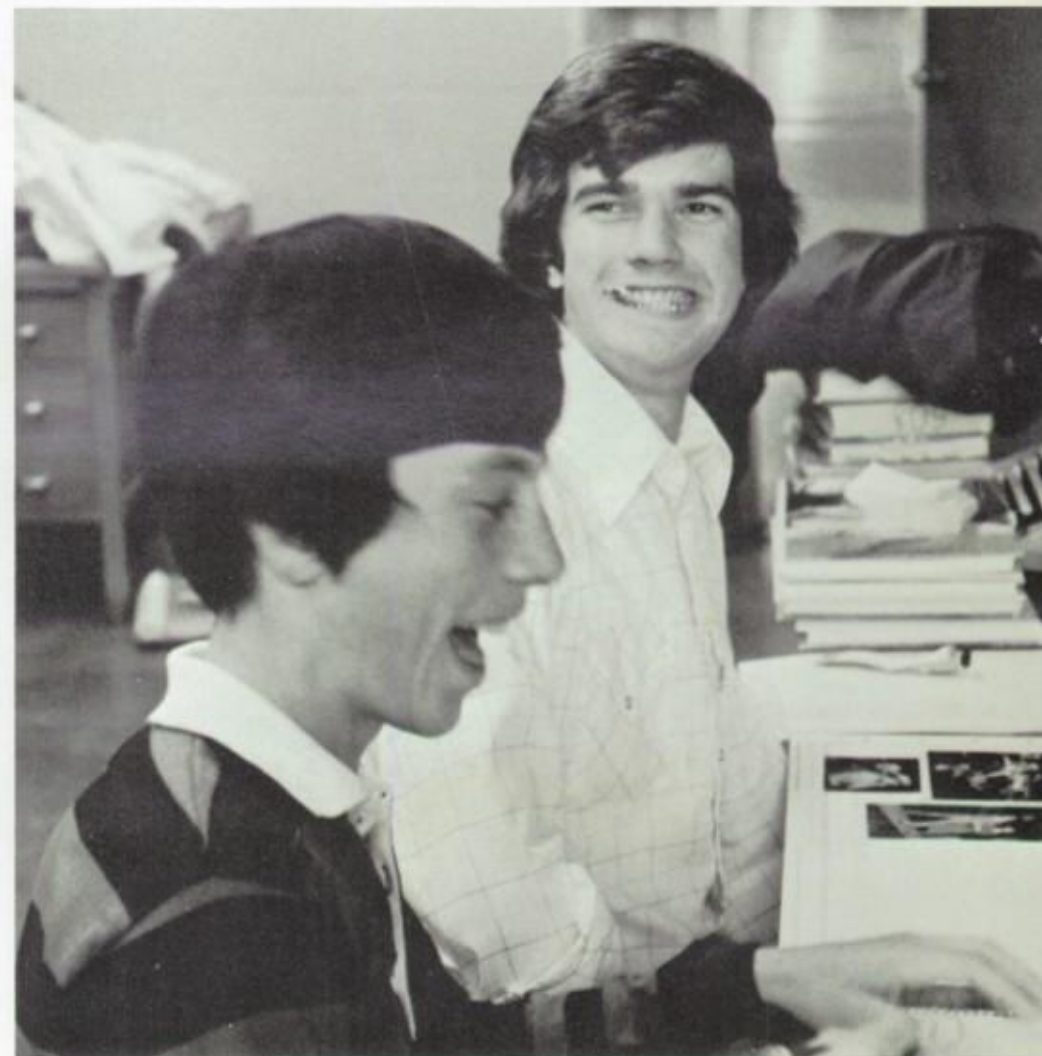

When you say "VALHALLAN!" You've said it all!

Editor-in-Chief, Melinda Simeon, and some of the staff.

Kevin O'Malley and Dan Vrabec show their serious sides.

Yearbook Tops In All Areas!!

The yearbook staff proudly displays the awards won for their 1976 yearbook.

Advisor, Mrs. Michel, checks with Class Editor, Amy Oswald.

Sharon Klaczek, Club Editor, fills out a sales receipt in the cafeteria.

PEOPLE What a wide variety comes to mind from this one word! Just reflect back on those at William Fremd, and this variety seems limitless. So many people, yet every single one was unique and special in their own way. Each person had something to contribute, whether through words or actions, and it was from these contributions that people came together, and united. Sure, different people have different views and ideas and ways of doing things, but it is by putting all these different things together, that something is accomplished.

It was through these basic ideas from which this yearbook formed, developed, and grew. Even more important though, were the people who helped to make this book into what it is today. For without their help, there would be no accomplishment.

I would like to first of all thank Mr. Mike Hackleman, the representative for Josten's/American who gave us numerous ideas, heard our complaints, and helped us get everything in order to turn out the book we did. Thanks also to Tuula Mills, Editorial Consultant for Josten's/American, Root Studios, whose great work is throughout the book, and to People Magazine, who was kind enough to let us use their ideas. A thank you is also due to the Administration, Staff, and Students at Fremd High, and more than words can say, to my co-workers and friends, and to Mrs. Patricia Michel, our advisor, who did much more than advise. It was through her determination and encouragement that this book ever came about. To put out this book was a lot of work, but the fun we had and the experiences that came from it, by far made up for the work.

Again, I thank everyone involved, for all the memories, the satisfaction, and the well spent time. It is through a wide variety of people that anything becomes accomplished, and it is through this accomplishment that a new light can be shone on many . . . people.

seriously, kind we're gettin' get to gether and get pleased by something (oh you don't drink) well we could just something to do.
that's great! it's better and all we get this summer.

DAVE.
I did not get to know you to go through school. Hope that this summer we can have some trip will in V.I. Good luck at conf and Greg Kemp venture.

-Dave-

It was great in Dev. Reading between you and Larch (Jude). All in all, I'm glad I got to know you better (I bet everyone tells you that!) you're a great guy! Good luck in everything you do and have a fantastic summer.

Dave,

I know the only reason you want my autograph is cause I know it will be worth money.

I love you a great kid and success. Good lots of fun. Hope all your ups and downs are in red. Have a good one.

LOVE, JANE

Dave, survey was such a riot! You never talked but you always were laughing. I think you'd be a nice funny guy. Hope to see you soon. Good luck. Stay out of trouble. Love, Jane Dave, don't let it get you down that I can't see you in the 100's dash. Just keep up the good work. It won't be much of a privilege for me to sign you book, but it is a privilege for you to have me sign it. If you can sell it for 100 times its cost. You have always tried to take my name away from me, like sophomore football. You usually got the credit for my 50 yard pun-punt holds, but I didn't mind because you're such a good hockey. Even though you pushed out this year (you must have been afraid of me going to hit you). As you can see I am now wearing a different pin. It doesn't matter though, because my writing still has the same value.

Dave (Larch's David)
I'm glad I got to know you this year. Developmental Reading was a gas. I'm glad some people around here enjoy Monty Python (it's a great show!) Take care good luck in all you do.
Love "75"
Jane

WAS AN EXCELLENT YEAR EXCEPT FOR SURVEY LETS TOP IT OUT WITH A WISCONSIN TRIA ABOUT THE 22 OF JUNE WITH THE WHOLE SENIOR CLASS GOOD LUCK

Bird,

What a year, Right "puppy"
 I really tried to come down State — not really though. I didn't want you to get down on yourself. The window will reign in this school forever, or until someone else tries to go through it.
 Your shirt will also be remembered for a long time. — After I grow out of it — of course — I will see that you are renewed an "small shirt" which will still fit your skinny body. Take care over the summer + good luck in college — you'll be very successful in what ever you do.
 We'll get in some good partying before we depart. Don't weep.

Yours truly, Bird

Dave,
 no more postco (!) — analyzing from me this year! But you must admit,
 I was right! May be will run into each other party
 ing this summer.
 Love,
 Wendy

Tom Since I might room with next year
 I'd better butter up
 so your a stud, cute
 mean, a great guy, smart
 My best friend, cool, strong great in track and everything you touch turns to gold
